| INVESTIGATIVE SUPERVISOR REVIEW | | SUBMITTED | ROBERTS, GEORGE | SUPERVISING INVESTIGATOR | 113 | 25-FEB-2014 11:36 | Several attempts were made to have the complainant sign the Sworn Complaint Affidavit required by Illinois Uniform Peace Officers Disciplinary Act and advising him/her that failure to do so may result in the termination of this investigation. The complainant has failed to sign the Sworn Affidavit. Should the complainant sign the Sworn Affidavit or additional information become available, this investigation can be re-opened. The R/I recommends that at this time the case be closed with a finding of - No Affidavit. |

The principal [REDACTED] related to [REDACTED] that she had given her a chance the day before on a previous incident and it was only fair that she get suspended on this day. Aliyah was ok with that and said she was leaving school [REDACTED] then to the washroom and called her mother. Students are not allowed to use cell phones in the building. I, Officer Ross asked [REDACTED] to give me the phone [REDACTED] then to the principal, hung up on her mom and said her mom is dead as far as she was concerned. Both myself [REDACTED] asked her what did her mom say [REDACTED] then became irate and aggressive, pushed me and told me to get out of her face saying that she was going to kill herself. I would not let [REDACTED] run out, she just kept crying and screaming stating she was going to kill herself. Officer Ross asked for 911 to be dialed and extra security because [REDACTED] was fighting and breaking things [REDACTED] assisted while I placed handcuffs on Aliyah for control [REDACTED] continued to cry and wish me dead while we waited for police. While in handcuffs, Officer Ross retrieved the cell phone from student which was in her back pocket. The school patrol car arrived about 15 minutes later and spoke with Aliyah. No handcuffs, no injuries to either party [REDACTED] explained she was homeless because of a recent death in her family and was depressed. The officers then asked the principal and officer Ross what would we like to do. The principal and officer Ross both agreed that the student needs to talk to a professional and that she needs help. In the meantime [REDACTED] student's mom continued to call the office demanding that officer Ross let her daughter go or else. Mom also informed Officer Ross that her child had been recording conversation between staff members and recording their faces. Officer Ross informed [REDACTED] that what her child was doing was illegal and school took the cell phone. [REDACTED] was taken into custody by the school patrol car. The mother sent her brother to meet the officers outside. Somehow the officers were stalled outside the building. The incident took place roughly around 2:30 pm. Aliyah left the building in good condition. No injuries and walked out on her own free will. Mom demanded phone next day and staff gave phone to mom. | Locations | Classroom |

After Care Instructions

INSTRUCTIONS

Instructions For: Manic Episode

1. You have been seen today for a manic episode.
2. Manic episodes occur as part of the illness called Bipolar Disorder. Bipolar Disorder is characterized by extreme mood swings that do not seem to be related to what is happening at the time in a person's life. Although the exact cause is unknown, biological, psychological, and hereditary factors may play a part.
3. Manic episodes are periods of unexplainable elation (extreme joy) and overactivity. Some signs and symptoms of a manic episode include:
 - Accelerated energy levels with a euphoric (very happy) mood.
 - Sleep disturbances that may involve shorter and shorter sleep periods each night or even no sleep at all for 3-4 days.
 - Easy distractibility such that it is difficult to concentrate on one thing at a time.
 - Out of control spending sprees.
 - Exaggerated thinking that leads to an over-inflated opinion of one's own abilities (Grandiosity).
 - Careless sexual promiscuity.
 - Rapid speech that is sometimes wild or illogical.
 - Irritability and rage.
 - Delusional thinking, especially about one's ability to carry out wild schemes.
4. Manic episodes may start out slowly beginning with excess energy and a good mood, but frequently accelerate out of control. Not every person with a manic episode has all of the symptoms listed above.
5. The treatment for a manic episode depends on the preferences of the treating physician and the severity of the episode. Some medications used for manic episodes include Lithium, valproic acid, or carbamazepine (Tegretol). Other medications may also be needed to control some of the symptoms.
6. You should take all prescribed medications as directed and DO NOT stop them once you start to feel better. This may cause a relapse of your symptoms.
7. Sometimes patients with manic episodes may feel the desire to hurt themselves or hurt someone else. It is VERY IMPORTANT that you contact your psychiatrist or doctor, or return here, or to the nearest Emergency Department immediately if you think you might try to harm yourself or others.
8. YOU SHOULD SEEK MEDICAL ATTENTION IMMEDIATELY, EITHER HERE OR AT THE NEAREST EMERGENCY DEPARTMENT, IF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING OCCURS:
 - Your symptoms become worse.
 - You have any desire to hurt yourself or others.
 - You develop any symptoms or side-effects that you think are related to your medications.

FOLLOW UP

Follow up with your physician in 1-2 days. Call as soon as possible to arrange.

STATEMENT

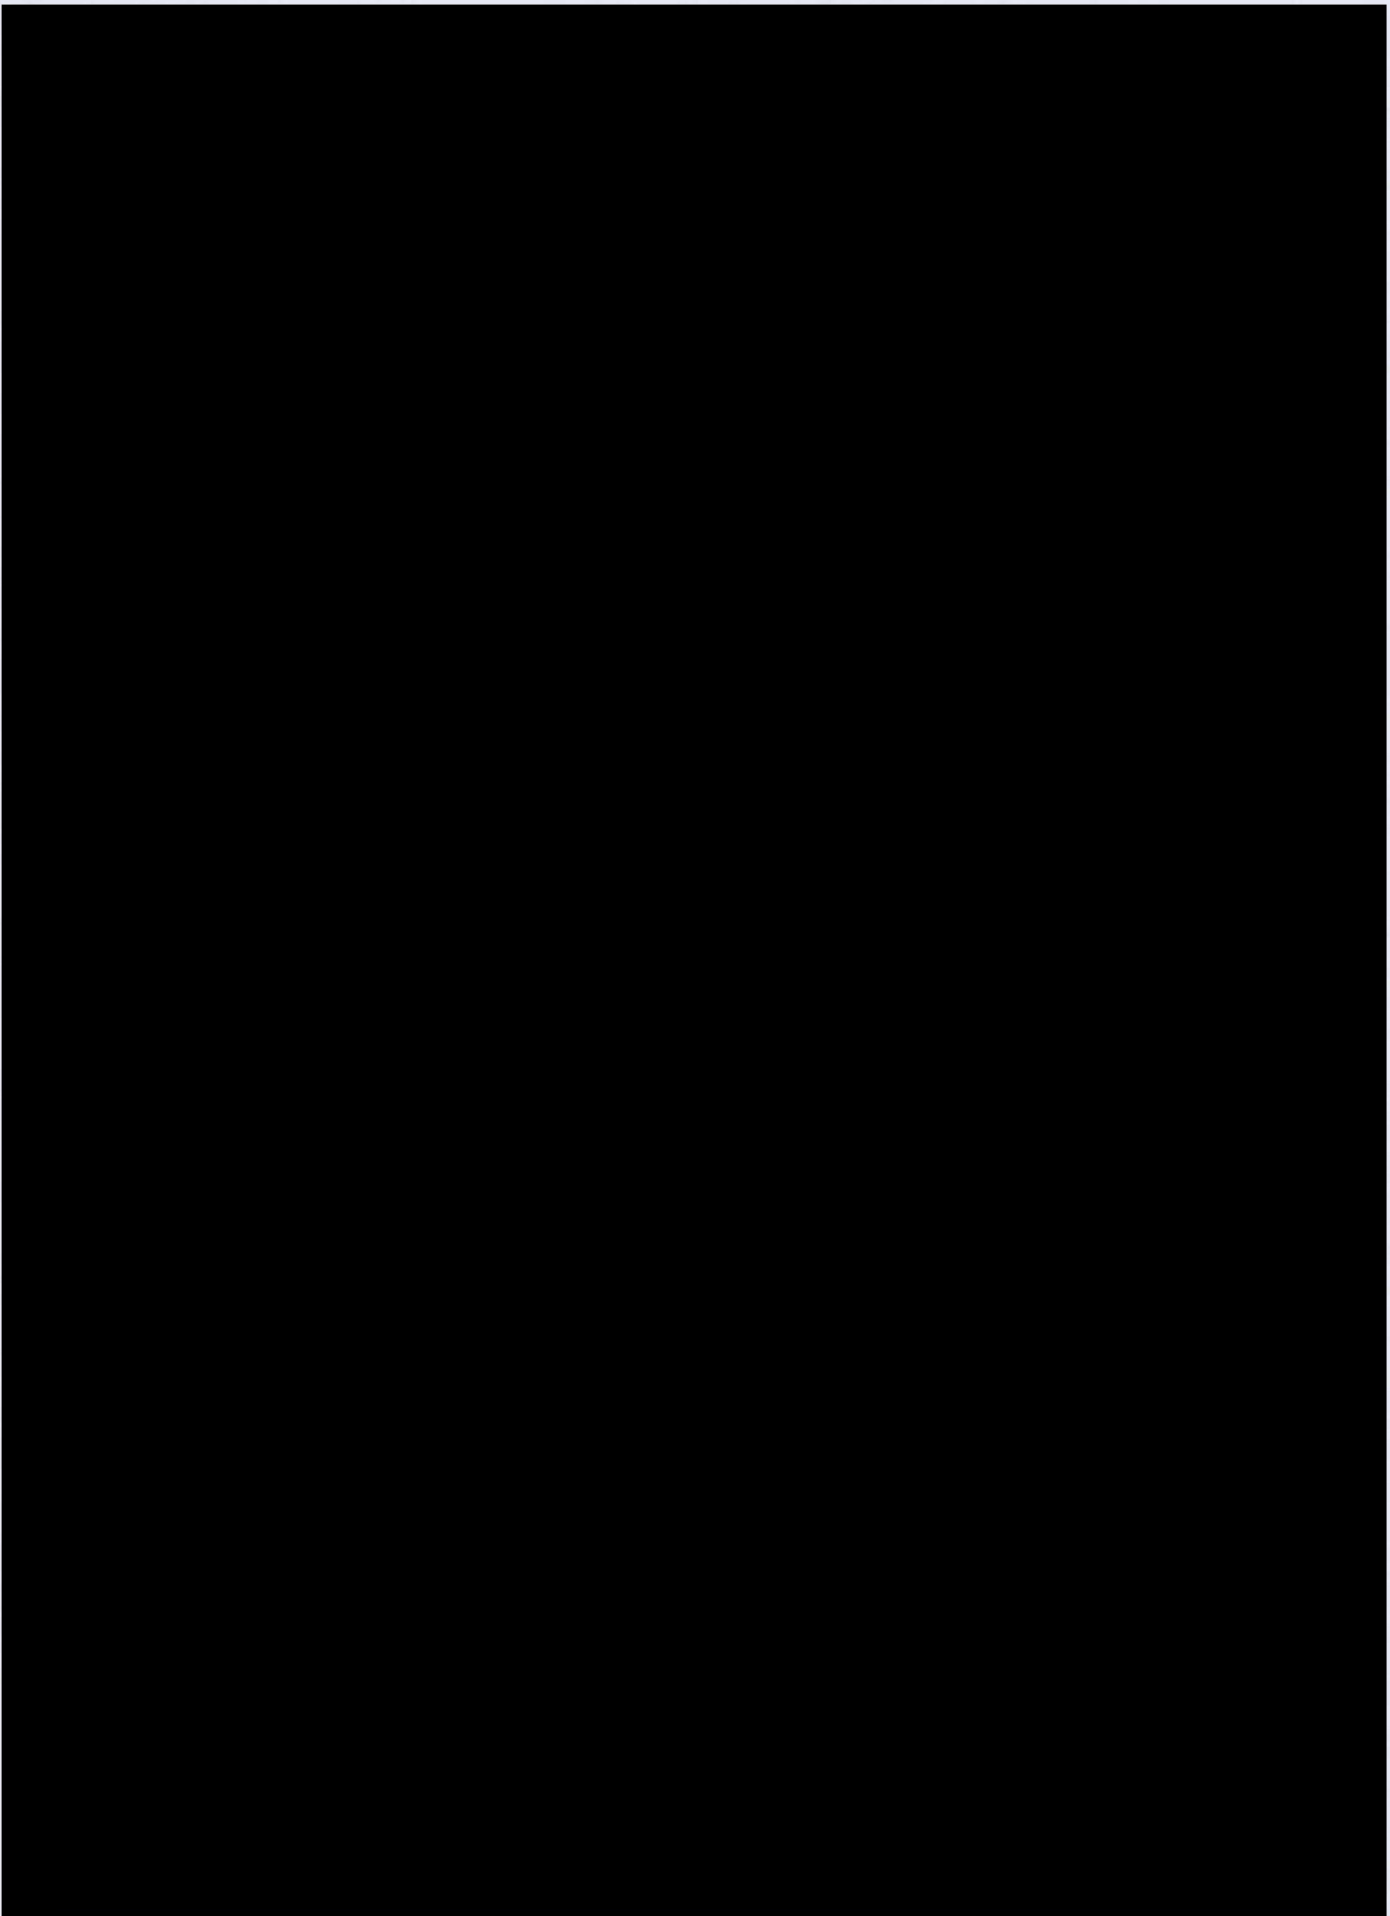

I certify that I have received a copy of the above after-care instructions; that these instructions have been explained to me; and that all of my questions pertaining to these instructions have been answered in a satisfactory manner.
